

Comic Boy

I feel so strange tonight, waking up in the full moon's light. Something had changed. I am not the same. I'm getting really hairy. More hairy than I thought a man could be. This is rather scary and ...and....my voice is changing toooooo.

Was that a howl? And my hands... Look at my nails... did I forget to cut them or are they longer... And sharper than before?

Claws! Actual claws! Mirror? Where's a mirrrrrrr!

Was that a growl? From my stomach? What's there to eat? I could really use some meat!

Growing up is so hard to do...especially when you're growing a tail toooooooo!
