
MISS RUSHFORTH TO HEAD LITTLE THEATRE

Miss Winnifred Rushforth was elected president of the Chilliwack Valley Little Theatre Association at its annual meeting in the Parish hall, Tuesday evening. Plans for the coming year were discussed, and it was decided to commence production of one-act plays for monthly presentation during the remainder of the year. An effort will be made to produce a three-act play in the spring.

Alin Jackson was elected vice-president, and other officers were as follows: Kathleen Barritt, secretary; Mrs. E. A. Richardson, treasurer; Mrs. E. S. Davidson, social convener, and Miss B. Wellington, press correspondent. John Witherspoon will represent Cheam on the executive and Wm. Dusterhoeft will represent Sardis.
