

* * *

Little Theatre Group Entertained Happily

Members of the Little Theatre Association held an enjoyable party in the Masonic hall Friday evening when two short plays were presented and a program of music and dancing enjoyed. Mrs. C. R. Hallman was in general charge of the evening. The first play, "A Sky Full of Stars," was presented by the Misses Adeline Graham, Leila Boucher, Amy Hutchison and Dr. C. R. Hallman. The second, "Sham," featured Murdock Maclauchlan, H. Sampson, A. Howie, and Miss Jean Howie. During the evening solos by Mrs. D. Finn, who played her own accompaniments, were much appreciated. There was a short program of dancing, with Allin Jackson at the piano. Refreshments were served during the evening.