MISS CHOATE HEADS LITTLE THEATRE ASSN.; ENJOYABLE PARTY HELD

Miss J. M. Choate was elected president of the Chilliwack Valley Little Theatre Association at the annual meeting of that body in the Masonic hall Wednesday evening. The roll showed a membership of over fifty, an increase over last year. The treasurer's report disclosed a balance of $52.19 on hand, and prospects for the success of the association next year are looked upon as bright.

Dr. C. R. Hallman was named vice-president and John Witherspoon secretary. A treasurer is to be named at a later date. Lipton McCutcheon is press correspondent and Miss W. D. Rushforth social convener.

After the adjournment of the business meeting the play, "Such Things Happen Only in Books," was presented under the direction of John Witherspoon. Those taking part were Kathleen Barritt, Lipton McCutcheon, John Witherspoon, and Leslie Russell. Dancing was enjoyed at the conclusion of the evening by members and their friends.
