

Little Theatre News

The first meeting of the new executive of the Chilliwack Valley Little Theatre Association was held at Miss J. Choate's cottage at Cultus Lake on Wednesday evening, June 27. Among those present were Miss J. Choate, president; Dr. C. R. Hallman, vice-president; J. Witherspoon, secretary, Miss W. D. Rushforth, Miss Mary Kerr and Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Richardson.

Following a social gathering and picnic supper, plans for the coming year were discussed. The matter of a new treasurer was left open until the next general meeting. Committees were formed to take charge of stage scenery, costumes and the acquisition of a room for rehearsals and general meetings. A committee was also chosen to read plays during the summer months and to select a three-act play for the fall and others for later presentations.

The executive are planning to keep in close touch with the members of the association by issuing a bulletin every month or six weeks.

The next event of general interest will be a meeting on September 10 when a one-act play under the direction of Miss Mary Kerr will be given.